Lighting The Advent Wreath

As we begin to think about the Christmas season coming soon please consider being a part of this Holy season. We are looking for individuals, couples, families and friends to join us in lighting the Advent Wreath. What a great way to be included in the Mass in a small but spiritual way. The sign-up sheet is in the vestibule, thank you for celebrating with us.

Crown Him With Many Crowns #362

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne; Hark! How the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own. Awake, my soul, and sing of him who set us free, and hail him as your heav'nly king through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave, and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save. His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high, who died, eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Daniel 7:13-14 (161B)

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Daniel
As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 93:1, 1-2, 5

The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

- The Lord is king; in splendor robed; robed is the Lord and girt about with strength.
- And he has made the world firm, not to be moved. Your throne stands firm from of old; from everlasting you are, O Lord.
- Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed; holiness befits your house, O Lord, for length of days.

Second Reading Revelation 1:5-8

A reading from the Book of Revelation

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel John 18:33b-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Unless A Grain of Wheat #563

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him;
if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If any one serves me, then they must follow me;
wherever I am, my servants will be.

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

Make your home in me as I make mine in you; those who remain in me bear much fruit.

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

Behold The Lamb #492

Those who were in the dark are thankful for the sunlight; we who live, we who die are grateful for his gift, thankful for his love.

Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God
shall come to know his glory.

Peaceful now, those whose hearts are blessed with understanding of the wheat, of the wine united with his word and the love we share.

Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God
shall come to know his glory.

Gentle one, Child of God, join with us at this table.

Bless our lives; nourish all who hunger for this feast;
shelter them with peace.

Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God
shall come to know his glory.

Lord of all, give us light. Deliver us from evil. Make us one; be our shield. Make still the winds that blow; cradle us with love.

Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God
shall come to know his glory.

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.

To Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King #360

To Jesus Christ, our Sov'reign King, who is the world's salvation, all praise and homage do we bring and thanks and adoration. Christ Jesus, victor! Christ Jesus, ruler! Christ Jesus, Lord and redeemer!
Thy reign extend, O King benign, to ev'ry land and nation; for in thy kingdom, Lord divine, alone we find salvation. Christ Jesus, victor! Christ Jesus, ruler!
Christ Jesus, Lord and redeemer!

Advent "Word Among Us" and Little Blue Books

IN SYMPATHY

May Gloria Merillat find eternal peace in heaven. We extend our prayers and sympathy to her family and friends. Please remember her in your prayers and actions.

Suffering Can Be Service

Jacqueline de Decker had gone to India to serve the poor and wanted to join Mother Teresa's newly founded Missionaries of Charity, but a spinal injury ended her dream. Or so she thought. In 1952 Mother Teresa sent Decker a letter with a proposal: "I need souls like yours to pray and suffer for the work" who could "do much more while on your bed of pain than I running on my feet." Decker's vocation sounds a lot like that of the 16th-century Carmelite sister Saint Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi, who withstood years of physical and spiritual suffering yet had a mystical prayer life and later even rose from her "bed of pain" to become a wisdom-figure in her community. Jesus calls us all to serve. Consider your strengths not your weaknesses when answering that call.

The Parish Office will be closed from Thursday, November 25 – Friday, November 26 due to Thanksgiving.

Knights of Columbus Christmas Outreach

The Knights of Columbus will again be sponsoring their Outreach to families in need. As in the past two years, the K. of C. will provide gifts for children and food gift cards for a limited number of families, those with special circumstances (such as a major illness in the family, a recent death in the family, etc.). These families are recommended by area school counselors. The K. of C. also will make donations to area school food pantry/backpack buddy programs to help serve families in need.

Anyone wishing to make a monetary donation can place it in an envelope and drop it in the collection basket. Be sure to mark the envelope Knights of Columbus or Christmas Outreach.

Act of Thanksgiving

May God and Father, I thank you for everything: for the fascinating world about me, for people near and far, for myself so filled with wondrous powers. All that is, is your gift. All that I am and have, I receive from you. I thank you for everything, through Jesus Christ, your Son, in whom you give us all good things. Amen.

The Charlie Brown Tree will again be in the vestibule and needs our help! The Women's Resource in Wauseon needs items, hopefully with our K. of C. and parishioners at St. Caspar can fulfill their Christmas Wish List! Items needed: baby wipes, thermometers, bottle brushes, disposable diapers (sizes 4, 5, 6), long sleeve outfits (sizes 3-24 months), comb/brush sets, infant towels, diaper ointment, infant toys (books, rattles, etc), and large gift bags used for Layettes. The tree will be up till the weekend of December 11, 12. If you have any questions, please call Don or Sue Davis at 419-822-3785 or 419-266-6956.

Rest In Peace

Father Gregory R. Hite, 66, a senior status priest of the Diocese of Toledo, died on Thursday, October 28, 2021. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

- Mr. & Mrs. Mark Britsch
- Tom & Rhoda May in memory of deceased loved ones

Be Careful

Be careful of your thoughts for your thoughts become your words. Be careful of your words for your words become your actions. Be careful of your actions for your actions become your habits. Be careful of your habits for your habits become your character. Be careful of your character for your character becomes your destiny. [Author Unknown]

Food for Thought...

Enjoy every single moment. The good, the bad, the beautiful, the ugly, the inspiring, the not-so-glamorous moments...and thank God through it all.

Meditative Thoughts

Just as the disciples tried to tell Jesus how to live, we hear many voices in our world trying to tell us what we need to be happy, via TV, advertising, etc. Some are good and helpful, most are not! Our best help is in the Bible. That is what we must listen to if we are to find the correct answers to happiness. Begin to read the Sunday scripture readings throughout the week and pray that God will really help you understand what they mean in your life.
