Safe Environment

The Diocese of Toledo remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric, or any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880 or by mail at 1933 Spielbusch Avenue, Toledo, Ohio 43604.

Easter “Word Among Us” and White Little Books Have Arrived!

You can pick them up on the tables in the back of the Church.

Would You Like To Be On Our Prayer Chain List?

Contact Sue Davis at 419-266-6956 or dsdavis1965@gmail.com. Please give her your name and email address and she will add you on the Prayer Chain!

April Fool’s Day

In 1562, Pope Gregory VII introduced the new Gregorian Calendar for the Christian world (which is still used today), and the New Year fell on January 1. Some people either didn’t know about the change or refused to follow the new calendar and continued to celebrate the New Year on April 1. As a result, people played tricks on them and called them “April Fools.”

Is God Nudging You to Use Your Talent/Gift?

Our parish is desperately short of guitarists and vocalists for weekend Masses. Some of our musicians have been serving our parish for over 40+ and 26+ years. Although they enjoy serving their parish, they’d like to cut back a little.

Please pray about whether God wants you to use the musical gift he’s given you for your parish. Your helping at just one Mass a month would be deeply appreciated. Practice is just prior to the Mass.

If you’d like to know more, please contact Sue Dieringer (419-335-1601) or Leon Smith (419-445-2885). Thank you for considering this need.

Baptism

Congratulations to Collin & Mackenzie Bacon on their son, Mylan James Bacon being baptized this past weekend.

Chrism Mass at the Cathedral

Kindly join us for the celebration of the annual Chrism Mass during which the Oil of the Sick and the Oil of Catechumens are blessed, the Sacred Chrism is consecrated, and our diocesan and religious priests renew their priestly promises. We invite all the faithful of the Diocese of Toledo to “pray for your priests, that the Lord may pour out his gifts abundantly upon them, and keep them faithful as ministers of Christ, the High Priest, so that they may lead you to him, who is the source of salvation” (Roman Missal, Chrism Mass, Renewal of Priestly Promises).

Parish representatives from around the diocese will be present and will take the blessed and consecrated oils back to their communities to be used in the celebration of the sacraments during the next year.

You are most cordially invited to join us for the Chrism Mass, which will be celebrated by Daniel E. Thomas on Tuesday of Holy Week, March 31, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. at Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral.

Good Friday

Jesus our advocate, in the darkness of Gethsemane, you wept for us, shedding tears of blood, you shared our pain. Jesus our redeemer, on the way to the Cross, you suffered for us. Tortured, spat upon and despised, you carried our burdens. Jesus our Saviour, on the hill of Calvary, you died for us. Crucified and hung upon a tree, you released us into freedom. Son of the living God, Redeemer, Saviour, Advocate, through the journey of suffering, in the place of darkness, you overcame death forever, and brought us into newness of life.

Is God Calling You To Be A Member of St. Caspar Parish Pastoral Council?

The role of the Pastoral Council is to represent the entire Parish while developing recommendations for our Pastor. The current members are looking to amplify your voices by adding additional representatives. Should you be inclined to answer the call or have any questions, please reach out to Fr. Todd, the office staff or any of the current members: April Stidham (president), Jesus Arroyo, Aaron Barajas, Judy Becker, Allison Simon, Randi Wudi, Alyse Zuchowski.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

God can do something with those who see what they really are and who know their need of cleansing but can do nothing with the man who feels himself worthy.

He would like to thank everyone that said Happy Birthday to him and gave cards to him last weekend.

The Holy Oils

In cathedrals around the world, bishops bless the holy oils at the "Chrism Mass" celebrated on Holy Thursday morning (or earlier in Holy Week).

The Church uses three sacramental oils:

- The Oil of Catechumens: Used to strengthen those who are preparing for Baptism.
- The Oil of the Sick: Used for the healing of mind, body and spirit.
- The Holy Chrism: Used at Baptism, at Confirmation, at Ordination, and at the dedication of a church building.

The holy oils are kept in a chest called the "ambry" which comes from a Latin word meaning an "armory" – a place to store arms.

In recent years the Church, returning to a fuller expression of its sacred symbols, displays these oils in an ambry that is more ornate and prominent.
